Discover Transylvania's legend of Count Dracula

Delight in architectural gems including the Piața Unirii

Learn about the history behind the building of the Arcul de Triumf

The largest and capital city of Romania, Bucharest delights travelers with its French-style Art Nouveau and Art Deco architecture. Known in the past as "Little Paris," this vibrant cultural hub boasts a diverse culinary scene, trendy cafes, iconic museums, historical churches, the grand Palace of Parliament, a unique 44 fountain system and quaint markets. Stroll the wide streets of Old Town, learn about the Romanian Revolution and its celebratory Arch of Triumph and Victory Avenue and hear the tales of Count Dracula as you visit Transylvania.

Plus, enjoy easy access with just one stopover from major airports nationwide. Together with the Journese® elite portfolio featuring all classes of air service, premier resorts, immersive private activities, private transfers including to/from port cities and pre- and post-cruise stays, as well as cruise voyages from the nearby port cities aboard Scenic Luxury Cruises & Tours, your European getaway awaits.
